RE: MUR 6420

Dear Mr. DeGrow

The Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint received on November 2, 2010. On November 1, 2011, based upon the information provided in the complaint, and information provided by the respondent, the Commission determined that there was no reason to believe the respondents violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended as to some respondents and dismissed the action as to others. Therefore, the Commission decided to close its file in this matter on November 1, 2011.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003). A copy of the dispositive General Counsel's Report is enclosed for your information. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g (a)(8).

Sincerely,

Anthony Herman
General Counsel
